STANDARD: Written policy, procedure, and practice provide that the type of court ordered custody awarded to the Kansas Juvenile Justice Authority (JJA) will determine the types of services appropriate for the juvenile.

TEMPORARY COURT ORDERED CUSTODY

- If prior to adjudication and/or sentencing the court determines that residing in the home is not in the juvenile's best interest, it may award temporary court ordered custody to the Commissioner of the Kansas Juvenile Justice Authority.
- The Community Supervision Officer's responsibility is to locate suitable placement.

The Community Supervision Officer shall:

1. Complete an assessment and/or orientation.
2. Develop a case supervision plan.
3. Deliver services consistent with that case supervision plan until the court takes final action and changes the court ordered custody status of the juvenile.
4. Collaborate with juvenile prosecutors to encourage final disposition of the complaint.

DISPOSITIONAL CUSTODY

- The Community Supervision Officer's responsibility is to locate suitable placement.

The Community Supervision Officer shall:

1. Complete an assessment and/or orientation.
2. Develop a case supervision plan.
3. Deliver services consistent with that case supervision plan until the court takes final action and changes the custody status of the juvenile.

DISCUSSION: None.
